

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
MARSHALL DIVISION

CELLULAR COMMUNICATIONS
EQUIPMENT LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

HTC CORPORATION, ET AL.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2:17-cv-00078-RWS-RSP
JURY TRIAL DEMANDED
(LEAD CASE)

ORDER

Before the Court is Plaintiff Cellular Communications Equipment LLC's ("CCE") and Defendant Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless's ("Verizon") (collectively, the "Parties") Joint Motion to Stay All Claims and Issues Pertaining To U.S. Patent Nos. 8,457,676 and 8,867,472 Pending Inter Partes Review and To Stay Certain Deadlines Pertaining To U.S. Patent No. 8,570,957. Having considered the Parties' submissions, the motion is GRANTED. The case is stayed as follows:

The '676 and '472 Patents

All claims and issues between the Parties pertaining to U.S. Patent No. 8,457,676 are stayed until a final written decision is issued by the PTAB for each of IPR2016-01493, IPR2017-01081, and IPR2016-01501.¹

All claims and issues of patent infringement between the Parties pertaining to U.S. Patent No. 8,867,472 are stayed until a final written decision is issued by the PTAB for each of IPR2016-

¹ For purposes of this Order, a final written decision includes a PTAB decision to not institute inter partes review.

01480 and IPR2017-00982.

For the avoidance of doubt, if and when the stay is lifted, the Parties retain all rights, claims, and defenses available as of the date of this Order, with the exception of the following estoppel provisions. Specifically, Verizon is estopped from the asserting any of the following grounds of invalidity with regard to the '676 and '472 patents if and when the stay is lifted:

- (1) grounds for which the PTAB instituted IPR and determined those grounds to be insufficient to establish unpatentability after a trial on the merits;
- (2) grounds included in a petition but determined by the PTAB to not establish a reasonable likelihood of unpatentability (in other words, administrative review on the merits of a ground); and
- (3) grounds not included in a petition that a skilled searcher conducting a diligent search reasonably could have been expected to discover.²

For the avoidance of doubt, any petition that is ultimately joined to any aforementioned IPR is considered to be part of the IPR for purposes of the estoppel provisions.

The '957 Patent

All deadlines related to U.S. Patent No. 8,570,957 (the “'957 patent”) are stayed, with the exception of the following briefing schedule, until the Court rules on Apple’s Motion for Summary Judgment of Invalidity of U.S. Patent No. 8,570,957 under 35 U.S.C. § 101 in Cellular Communications Equipment LLC v. AT&T Inc., et al., No. 2:15-cv-00576-RWS-RSP or the Court rules on Verizon’s forthcoming summary judgment motion regarding the validity of the '957 patent under 35 U.S.C. § 101 in the instant case. The Court sets the following expedited briefing

² Verizon is not estopped from asserting grounds included in a petition but which the PTAB found redundant or declined to institute review for another procedural reason.

schedule for Verizon's forthcoming motion:

- September 15, 2017 - Deadline for Verizon to file motion for summary judgment of invalidity of the '957 patent under 35 U.S.C. § 101.
- October 6, 2017 - Deadline for CCE to file a Response to Verizon's Motion.

No party will file a Reply or Sur-Reply to Verizon's forthcoming motion.

SIGNED this 13th day of September, 2017.
